An official trial of the dynamite gun of the cruiser Vesuvius has been made.
The cruiser was towed to a point in the Delaware river near Marquibook. The test was on the points of range, funnel and distance. Wooden barrels loaded with gunpowder were used and the test is reported to have been eminently successful.It is stated in Berlin that in the course of an interview between Prince Rumarek and Dr. Windthorst the Chancellor asked the Clerical leader to support the Government in the Reichstag.
The Government is preparing for induction in the Reichstag proposals for financial support to the Military Department which will be startling in their magnitude and scope.The Frankfurt lottery is making a great effort to prevent the Kentucky Legislature from putting an end to its operations. It is charged that its agents have been attempting to bribe legislators. Hon. Evan Settle, of Oventon, says that he was offered money as a reward for his services as a legislator.
The lottery is growing strong.The Supreme Court of New York has decided that pool selling on pools was legalized by the act of the Legislature in 1887. The decision was in a case where a man sued a racing association to recover winnings on a pool ticket.
The defense moved to dismiss the complaint on the ground that it was gambling. The lower court granted the motion, but the general term reversed this ruling and ordered a new trial.The Tennessee House of Representatives recently enacted what is known as the Dutch Election bill, Myers Registration bill and Carson Pool Tax bill into laws, they having previously passed the Senate. They passed by a strict party vote, the Democrats having but three more than a Constitutional quorum or two-thirds and the Republican minority by refusing to vote attempting to prevent a quorum. Enough sick Democrats were brought in, however, to pass the bills.A DEAL has been consummated. It is reported, by which Keokuk, Iowa, will become the most important hog market between Chicago and the Missouri river.
Grounds have been purchased and contracts made for the erection of sheds, pens, feeding buildings and all the necessary appliances to put the institution in readiness to care for 5,000 hogs per day. E. M. Horne, lately of the Peoria stock market, will be president of the company, which will be known as the Keokuk Armour stock yards.FARMER BISMARCK, replying to an advertisement recently appeared in the press, to continue, as far as his strength will permit, to work in the interest of agriculture, fostering the farming industry by legislation as far as possible, and relieving it from unequal taxation.

CONGRESS.

AFTER the transaction of unimportant routine business in the Senate on the 11th Senator Mitchell offered a joint resolution relating to the admission of Missouri into the Union of United States Senators by the people. A resolution was adopted asking the President to call for the election of Senators from the Creek Nation in the Indian Territory. The resolution for the exclusion of the Indians from the Cherokee Strip was passed by the Senate on the 11th. The House passed the same resolution on the 12th.
When a vote was reached no quorum was present and the matter went over. Adjourned till the 13th. The House passed a bill for public buildings, among them for buildings at Atchison, Kan., Fremont, Neb., and St. Paul, Minn. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 80 nays. The bill was discharged to the Pension Committee from the further consideration of a resolution offered by the House for an investigation by the Senate of the pension claims of the late General Sherman, as the committee had failed to report on the matter. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 80 nays. The bill was discharged to the Pension Committee from the further consideration of a resolution offered by the House for an investigation by the Senate of the pension claims of the late General Sherman, as the
